STRMN would not survive without the many volunteers who generously donate their time and energy to the care and welfare of our dogs. We always need more volunteers who are willing to donate as many hours as their time and schedules allow. If you have a passion for the Shih Tzu breed, some extra time, and a whole lot of love to share with these very special dogs, there is a volunteering opportunity for you! We realize not everyone can take a dog in to their home to foster, but there are many other areas where you are needed. The rewards cannot be measured and you will be blessed when you help save a dog who is homeless, abused, unwanted, and suffering. We are a warm, supportive group of men and women in and around the Twin Cities area who consider themselves friends as well as fellow volunteers.

There are many different ways to volunteer and listed below are just a few. If you feel a tug at your heart to try volunteering, please fill out the Volunteer Application online at www.shihtzurescuemn.org or request a paper copy from Shih Tzu Rescue of Minnesota, P.O. their right foster home as well, and dogs from foster home to foster home are able to choose the forever home that meets their dog's needs. If the foster parent making this decision he/she can have ongoing home visits to offer advice

We realize that when the time comes for his new home it is often difficult for the dog with him. It is never easy, but the wonderful person or family blessed to have the dog; being able to give and receive care. All foster moms and dads go through personally are unable to keep every dog, so we need to find a home as good as, if not better. Another great joy for foster parents is the opportunity to see the dog a month after the adoption to follow up on seeing the dog remember you and your new family in his new forever home. The Rescue Reunion every year is to see our adopted dogs again with their foster parents that they did "the right
